

Modeling Approach

1. Impute features for both the training set and the test set with MICE forest.
2. Based on the social graph, create embedding of the training features using the GraphSAGE algorithm, and then, using these embeddings, and the ground truth labels, complete/predict the labels of the unlabeled training examples.
3. Finally, construct a fully-connected neural network to predict for unseen examples.